LIVE A LITTLE LYGON

This charming old coaching inn sits in the heart of Broadway village – often called ‘the jewel of the Cotswolds’ and boasts a rich history, coloured by the many characters who have stayed here, from Oliver Cromwell to Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton. The Cotswolds bolthole offers a range of dining experiences, from Eggs Benedict brunches and late-night drinks in the Lygon Wine Bar to a seasonal British menu in the stunning Lygon Bar & Grill. Tucked away in a tranquil corner of the hotel you will find the Spa offering tempting treatments, revitalising therapies and soothing massages. If you live within 50 miles you are invited to be part of its history and become a friend of The Lygon Arms.
